

I am delighted that you have chosen BTEC Applied Science

In order to get you started, it is important to understand what the subject is all about.

Applied Science is an ideal qualification for students with a passion for science however prefer a practical subject. On this course, students will examine the fundamentals of science, practical scientific techniques and what working in the science industry is like.

What do employers say about this subject?

Applied Science is a practical base subject which helps students to build up research, problem solving, organisation and analytical skills. Students taking this subject will be able to demonstrate to employers a good knowledge of scientific methods and technical skills.

Course Overview

Unit 1 - Principles and Applications of Science I (Externally assessed exam based unit)

Unit 2 - Practical Scientific Procedures and techniques (Internally assessed coursework based unit)

Unit 3 - Scientific Investigation Skills (Externally assessed practical based exam unit)

Optional unit - This can be one of a selection of units (Internally assessed coursework based unit).

Emphasis throughout the course is on developing knowledge, competence and confidence in practical skills and problem solving. You will learn how society makes decisions about scientific issues and how science contributes to the success of the economy and society.

<https://youtu.be/Kr6T1yIZxok>