However, should your child fail to attend an exam / retake, the school reserves the right to charge for any subsequent entries in that exam course.

The parents / carers will be asked to pay in advance for their child to take / retake the exam, and on confirmation of their child sitting and completing the exam, the fee paid will be refunded.

It should be noted that if your child does not sit the exam as planned, it could waste 2 years of their work as it would be logged as a 'fail' or they could be withdrawn from that exam.

If the school is advised that the child cannot attend due to illness / medical reasons, the school will need written medical evidence (letter / certificate) from the GP / hospital.

- ✳ A candidate or parent/carer can request a subject entry, change of level or withdrawal.

Late entries

- ✳ Entry deadlines are circulated to heads of department via email and post.
- ✳ Late entries are authorised by heads of department and need to be signed off by the 1st Deputy Headteacher.

MANAGING INVIGILATORS AND EXAM DAYS

Managing invigilators

External invigilators will be used for exam supervision.

- ✘ They will be used for all exams.
- ✘ The recruitment of invigilators is the responsibility of the exams office.
- ✘ Securing the necessary Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) clearance for new invigilators is the responsibility of the centre administration.
- ✘ CRB fees for securing such clearance are paid by the centre.
- ✘ Invigilators are timetabled and briefed by the exams office.
- ✘ Invigilators' rates of pay are set by the centre administration.

Exam days

- ✘ The exams officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery and materials available for the invigilator.
- ✘ Site management is responsible for setting up the allocated rooms.
- ✘ The lead invigilator will start all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.
- ✘ Subject staff may be present at the start of the exam to assist with identification of candidates but must not advise on which questions are to be attempted. Subject teachers may act as invigilators provided they are not the sole invigilator for an examination in the subject that they have taught to the students. They would be required to carry out the normal duties of an invigilator. They would be barred, however, from giving advice to, or making comments on the work of candidates.
- ✘ In practical exams subject teachers may be on hand in case of any technical difficulties.
- ✘ Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. Papers will be distributed to heads of department/faculty at the end of the exam session, once all scripts have been despatched.

CANDIDATES, CLASH CANDIDATES AND SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

Candidates

- ✘ The centre's published rules on acceptable dress, behaviour and candidates' use of mobile phones and all electronic devices apply at all times.
- ✘ Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage.
- ✘ Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines.
- ✘ Candidates may leave the exam room for a genuine purpose requiring an immediate return to the exam room, in which case a member of staff must accompany them.
- ✘ The exams officer will attempt to contact any candidate who is not present at the start of an exam and deal with them in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Clash candidates

- ✘ The exams officer will be responsible as necessary for identifying escorts, identifying a secure venue and arranging overnight stays.

Special consideration

- ✳ Should a candidate be too ill to sit an exam, suffer bereavement or other trauma or be taken ill during the exam itself, it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre, or the exam invigilator, to that effect.
- ✳ Any special consideration claim must be supported by appropriate evidence within five days of the exam, for example a letter from the candidate's doctor.
- ✳ The exams officer will then forward a completed special consideration form to the relevant awarding body within seven days of the exam.

COURSEWORK AND APPEALS AGAINST INTERNAL ASSESSMENTS

Coursework

- ✳ Candidates who have to prepare portfolios should do so by the end of the course or centre-defined date.
- ✳ Heads of department will ensure all coursework is ready for despatch at the correct time and the exams officer will keep a record of what has been sent when and to whom.
- ✳ Marks for all internally assessed work are provided to the exams office by the subject teachers.

Appeals against internal assessments

- ✳ The centre is obliged to publish a separate procedure on this subject, which is available from the exams office.

The main points are:

- ✳ appeals will only be entertained if they apply to the process leading to an assessment. There is no appeal against the mark or grade awarded
- ✳ candidates may appeal if they feel their coursework has been assessed unfairly, inconsistently or not in accordance with the specification for the qualification
- ✳ appeals should be made in writing by 30 June to the head of centre (or other nominee) who will decide whether the process used conformed to the necessary requirements
- ✳ the head of centre's findings will be notified in writing, copied to the exams officer and recorded for awarding body inspection.

RESULTS, ENQUIRIES ABOUT RESULTS (EARs) AND ACCESS TO SCRIPTS (ATS)

Results

- ✳ Candidates will receive individual results slips on results days in person at the centre / by post to their home addresses.
- ✳ Arrangements for the school to be open on results days are made by the head of centre.
- ✳ The provision of staff on results days is the responsibility of the head of centre.

EARs

- ✳ EARs may be requested by centre staff or candidates if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking.
- ✳ When the centre does not uphold an EAR, a candidate may apply to have an enquiry carried out. If a candidate requires this against the advice of subject staff, they will be charged.
(See section 5: Exam fees)

ATS

- ✳ After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of papers within three days' scrutiny of the results.
- ✳ If a result is queried, the exams officer, teaching staff and head of centre will investigate the feasibility of asking for a re-mark at the centre's expense. The consent of candidates must be obtained.
- ✳ Centre staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained.
- ✳ GCSE re-marks cannot be applied for once a script has been returned.

CERTIFICATES

- ✳ Certificates are collected and signed for.
- ✳ Certificates may be collected on behalf of a candidate by a third party, provided they have been authorised to do so.
- ✳ The centre retains certificates indefinitely.
